I can't speak highly enough about Candy Kennels and the effort, care, love and time Leah puts in to her dogs. She is such a respectable breeder and she has blessed me with such a beautiful, courageous, determined little dog. If you're looking for a puppy that has personality, is loyal, great with kids, loves to play and is good with other dogs, but is also small and sweet. I highly recommend you have a chat with Leah about one of hers because I can guarantee you will never look back. My little guy has helped me through some tough times and is 100% a member of my family ☺☺

Thank you again Leah. Xx
